MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Administration)

SUBJECT: Status of Inspection in the Security
Office by the Clark Committee CIA Task Force

1. The third day of inspection by the Clark Committee CIA Task Force (6 January 1955) was occupied as follows:

2. From 9:00 to 11:15 a.m., the Committee was briefed by the Deputy Director for Investigations and Operational Support, and by the Chief, Security Support Division on the functions and activities of the Security Support Division ☐. The briefing developed into a routine statement of functions and procedures without any particular features being highlighted by the Committee as of special interest to them. At the conclusion of the briefing, the members of the Committee were unanimous in their praise of the excellence of the briefing and the apparent ability of the DD/IOS and the Chief/SSD. They stated that because of the completeness of their briefing, they saw no need to visit ☐

3. From 11:20 a.m. to 12:10 p.m., the Committee was briefed on the functions and activities of the Inspection Staff by the Chief of that staff. This briefing did not disclose any unusual or specifically highlighted point of interest by the Committee.

4. From 1:10 to 2:05 p.m., the Committee was briefed on the functions and activities of the Alien Affairs Staff by the Chief of that staff. The briefing was routine and the only particular interest indicated by the Committee was to ascertain under what NSC Directive the Director of Central Intelligence was operating in connection with his agreement with the Deputy Attorney General ☐

5. From 2:05 to 3:00 p.m., the Committee was briefed by the Chief, Policy Staff on the functions and activities of his office. The briefing was of a routine nature.

6. From 3:00 to 3:45 p.m., the Committee was briefed by the Chief, Administration and Training Staff on the functions and activities of that component. The briefing was of a routine nature.
